

I am against the petition put forth by Bell South which would prevent them and other large phone companies from being subject to regulatory review of broadband pricing. I find my service with a local ISP provider superior to that received by larger providers. Lack of regulation would most likely cause the loss of local providers down the road. Protect the customer and their choices of Internet Service by voting against this dangerous petition.